DETAILED ACTION

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. § 121:

- I. Claims 1-22, drawn to a method for reducing the occurrence of fever, headache, nausea and/or vomiting associated with the administration of a therapeutic compound, and a method for treating an LFA-1 mediated disorder, classified in Class 424, subclass 133.1, 134.1 and 173.1.
- II. Claim 23, drawn to a method for conditioning a mammal to tolerate high doses of a therapeutic compound; classified in Class 424, subclass 133.1, 134.1, 172.1 and 173.1
- III. Claims 24-32, drawn to 24-32, drawn to a method for down modulating a cell surface receptor in a cell population in a mammal, classified in Class 424, subclass 133.1, 134.1, 172.1 and 173.1.

2. Groups I-III are different methods. A method of reducing, a method of conditioning and a method for down modulating differ with respect to ingredients, method steps, and endpoints; therefore, each method is patentably distinct.

3. These inventions are distinct for the reasons given above. Further, even though in this case the classification is shared, a different field of search would be required based upon the structurally distinct products recited and the various methods of use comprising distinct method steps. Therefore restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper. Further, a prior art search also requires a literature search. It is an undue burden for the examiner to search more than one invention.

Species Election

4. Irrespective of whichever group applicant may elect, applicant is further required under 35 US 121 (1) to elect a single disclosed species to which claims would be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable and (2) to list all claims readable thereon including those subsequently added.

If Group I is elected, applicant is required to elect a single specific disorder such as psoriasis, asthma, rheumatoid arthritis, multiple sclerosis, rejection of a transplanted graft or rejection by a transplanted graft recited in claim 16. These species are distinct because the pathological conditions differ in etiologies and therapeutic endpoints; thus each condition represents patentably distinct subject matter.

Art Unit: 1644

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. § 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable.

5. Applicant is advised that a response to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 C.F.R. § 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. M.P.E.P. § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. § 103 of the other invention.

6. Applicant is advised that the response to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed.

7. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Maher Haddad whose telephone number is (571) 272-0845. The examiner can normally be reached Monday through Friday from 7:30 am to 4:00 pm. A message may be left on the examiner's voice mail service.
